DETAILED ACTION

A copy of the prior art non-patent literature cited in the specification and not listed on form PTO-1449 should be submitted.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 3-6 and 15-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 3 is confusing. It is not clear which A-LVp delay is being compared, the A-LVp delay recited in claim 1 or the A-LVp delay recited in claim 2. The same is true for claim 4 and the A-LVp delay. Also, as with the A-LVp discussed above it is not clear which A-RVp delay is being compared. Claim 6 is confusing. It compares the A-LVp delay with the A-RVs delay and acts if it is shorter. However, the claim is dependent upon claim 1 that states that the A-LVp delay is always longer.

Claim 15 is confusing. It is not clear which A-LVp delay is being compared. The same is true for claim 16 and the A-LVp delay and the A-RVp delay. Claim 18 is confusing. It compares the A-LVp delay with the A-RVs delay and acts if it is shorter. However, the claim is dependent upon claim 13 that states that the A-LVp delay is always longer.

All claims appear to avoid the prior art.

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
